Mary Black Auxiliary Donates $10,000 to Spartanburg Children's Shelter

SPARTANBURG, SC – The Mary Black Auxiliary, a 501-3C non profit organization, recently donated $10,000 to the Spartanburg Children's Shelter. The donation event took place at 11:30 am on July 22nd, in the Main Lobby at Mary Black Memorial Hospital. Carolyn McKee, President of the Mary Black Auxiliary presented the check to Jennifer Bauer, Director of Development for the Spartanburg Children's Shelter. "The Spartanburg Children's Shelter welcomes this generous donation from the Mary Black Auxiliary," said Bauer. "The funds will be used to fund a wide range of activities for the children during this summer and on into the school year," she added.

The Mary Black Auxiliary operates the Merry Bee Gift Shop at Mary Black Hospital. Through proceeds from the gift shop and other fundraising activities, the Mary Black Auxiliary also provides: crayons and coloring books for children in the Mary Black waiting areas, coffee service in the surgery area waiting rooms, financial assistance for seniors and their families for the LifeLine program, support of the Mary Black Breast Navigator Program, Scholarships for select Junior Volunteers entering the medical field and donations to other area organizations.
