Mary Black Health System Employees Receive Palmetto Gold Award

Spartanburg, SC -Mary Black Health System (MBHS) is pleased to announce that, left to right, Janie Busch, Emily Corbett and Chris Terrill have received the prestigious Palmetto Gold nursing award. The award recognizes the top 100 nurses in South Carolina each year. Winners exemplify excellence in practice and commitment to the nursing profession. Busch has been with Mary Black for five years and serves in the Post Anesthesia Care Unit. Corbett is a veteran with nearly 19 years with Mary Black and is a member of the Birthing Center team. Terrill has been with Mary Black for almost nine years and is the Assistant Director of Surgery and Pre Surgical Testing in Mary Black's main OR. The 2009 winners will attend the Palmetto Gold Gala event in Columbia in May. Over the past several years Mary Black has had ten nurses receive the prestigious Palmetto Gold Award.
