Tamalunas Named Vice President at Mary Black

SPARTANBURG, SC – Mary Black Health System (MBHS) is pleased to announce that Todd Tamalunas has been named Vice President - Physician Practice Management for MBHS. Tamalunas will be responsible for managing the Mary Black Physicians Group which consists of 35 primary care physicians in 13 locations throughout Spartanburg County.

Tamalunas comes to Mary Black from a large integrated health system in Illinois where he served as the Assistant Vice President for Physician Practices. Tamalunas has a wide background in financial operations, strategic planning, and physician group practice management.

“Todd brings a wealth of large group physician practice operational experience to our health system,” said Phillip L. Wright, FACHE, CEO Mary Black Health System. “We welcome Todd and his family to Spartanburg,” he added.

Tamalunas is a graduate of Rockford College and has been awarded the designation of Certified Medical Professional Executive (CMPE) by the Medical Group Management Association.
